The Future of Elections

CCAO is pleased to offer a one-hour "The Future of Elections" webinar on October 8, 2014 at 9:30 a.m. Continuing changes in federal and state election laws, recent court decisions, new directives from the Secretary of State, and the application of new technology to conduct elections provides county officials with a growing list of challenges as they attempt to keep up with the evolving world of elections in Ohio.

CCAO is fortunate to have two election officials with a wealth of practical experience running elections in two different sized counties, as well as the executive director of the Ohio Association of Election Officials to share their collective wisdom with commissioners, county election officials and others.

Topics to be addressed include:

- Voting Machine Purchases
- Electronic Poll Books
- Changes in Election Law
- Preview of the next General Assembly

SPEAKERS

Aaron Ockerman, Executive Director, Ohio Association of Election Officials, has represented election officials since 2001. Aaron advocates on behalf of nonprofits, local governments, statewide associations and fortune 500 companies. He is involved in all facets of client relations and lobbying of the General Assembly, state agencies, Governor's office, and Pension systems.

William Anthony, Jr., has been director of the Franklin County Board of Elections since 2010 and has served on the board either as a member or chairman since 1997. He also serves on the Central Ohio Transit Authority's Board of Trustees and the Kids Voting Central Ohio board.

Timothy Ward has served as Director of the Madison County Board of Elections since 2007. Tim is active in the Ohio Association of Election Officials (OAE) serving as a trustee and co-chair of the Legislative Committee. In addition, he serves on the CCAO/OAE Joint Committee on the Administration of Elections.

Participants in the webinar may pose questions to the presenters who will respond during and after the power point presentation.
