CCAO is pleased to offer a webinar on the "Ohio Ethics Law: Can I Do That?" on May 11 at 9:30 a.m. This webinar about the Ohio Ethics Law provides timely information regarding the Ohio Ethics Commission and about restrictions in the Ohio Ethics Law and related statutes that pertain to all public sector employees and private sector parties who are regulated or do business with public offices.

Objectives:

- Understand how to identify and avoid acting on potential conflicts of interest
- Understand definition of public contracts and ethics prohibitions related to public contracts
- Identify potential post-employment requirements
- Learn about general assistance available from the Ohio Ethics Commission to understand and comply with the Ethics Law and related statutes

Speaker: Susan Willeke joined the Ohio Ethics Commission in 2005 as the Education and Communications Manager where she oversees and conducts educational and communication outreach. In this position, Susan presents approximately 200 speeches annually, develops information strategies regarding agency programs and represents the Ethics Commission to Ohio citizens, the media and the Ohio legislature. Prior to joining the Commission, Susan served in the communications office at the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency and as a legislative aide in the Ohio House of Representatives. She is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Ursuline College in Pepper Pike.
