Helping Veterans Achieve Success in Ohio

CCAO is pleased to offer a webinar on “Helping Veterans Achieve Success in Ohio” on November 9th at 9:30 am.

The webinar will focus on achieving success through education and employment opportunities that are available in Ohio. The first part of the webinar will provide an overview of the State Approving Agency followed by On the Job Training and Apprenticeship Outreach to Veterans. In the second part of the webinar, the speaker will discuss Ohio Means Veterans Jobs, veteran demographics and current initiatives to connect veterans to employment in your county.

Speakers

Robert Breeckner, DVS Deputy Director, Educational Programs Office. Rob oversees the State Approving Agency and Troops to Teachers programs in Ohio. His office assures colleges, institutions, and organizations meet the statutory guidelines so veterans and their dependents can use VA educational benefits. He graduated from Franklin University and the Community College of the Air Force and has been in state government for over 31 years. Rob has achieved the rank of Chief Master Sergeant in the Ohio National Guard and is currently working on his 32nd year of military service with the U.S. Air Force Reserves in Youngstown.

Jonathon Field is the Workforce Manager for the Ohio Department of Veterans Services (ODVS). Since 2013, Jonathon has focused on workforce and military relations issues. Prior to joining the ODVS team, he served in Iraq and Afghanistan as an Infantryman in the Army National Guard. Jonathon received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science at The Ohio State University and a Master’s in Public Administration at the University of Dayton.

Webinar participants may pose questions to the presenters during and after the presentation.
