

2nd Wednesday Webinar Series

Workplace Law – Developments and Expectations for 2019

January 9, 2019

The County Commissioners Association of Ohio is pleased to offer a webinar on Wednesday, January 9 at 9:30 a.m. on “Workplace Law – Developments and Expectations for 2019.”

Employees are the single largest investment for counties and local government. To be able to effectively manage this investment the session will address the developments from court decision including pending Janus litigation, Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), marijuana and employment discrimination laws.

With an eye to the horizon, this session will also identify trends including union negotiation demands and settlements, state and federal legislation, and pending court cases affecting counties and local governments.

Our speaker is Jonathan Downes, an attorney with the law firm of Zashin & Rich, who has over 30 years of experience in practicing labor and employment law in Ohio. He represents cities, townships, counties, school districts and public officials throughout the State. Jonathan is rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell and is a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. Jonathan is also certified by the Ohio State Bar Association as a Specialist in Labor and Employment law.

Questions and responses are encouraged during this interactive presentation. Click here to register for this exceptional educational opportunity.
