EMPLOYEE BENEFITS - COUNTY COMMISSIONERS HANDBOOK CHAPTER UPDATED

Over the decades, CCAO has published four editions of the County Commissioners Handbook and distributed copies to all counties. Since the first edition, the Handbook has grown to nearly 1,000 pages and publishing an updated copy of all chapters in a timely manner is nearly impossible. Due to technology changes and the high cost of publishing a hard copy, the Handbook will be published on our website.

Recently, Chapter 66 – Employee Benefits was updated. A revised copy has been published on the CCAO website at www.ccao.org > Publications > County Commissioners Handbook or click on the story on the front page about the Handbook Chapter update. CCAO expresses its gratitude to Douglas E. Duckett, Esq., Consultant and Trainer in Human Resources and Labor Relations, Duckett Consulting, who prepared this chapter. Doug can be contacted at (513) 484-7216, douglas@duckettconsulting.com or www.duckettconsulting.com.

TRANSITION TO CHARTER GOVERNMENT IN CUYAHOGA COUNTY; 2ND WEDNESDAY'S SEMINAR – AUGUST 11

CCAO will be hosting “The Transition to Charter Government in Cuyahoga County” – the fifth in a series of “Second Wednesday’s” seminars – on Wednesday, August 11 at the CCAO Offices, 209 East State Street, in Columbus. Information is posted on the front page of our website at www.ccao.org.

This seminar will focus on the transition to charter government in Cuyahoga County. Speakers will provide attendees with background information on county charters and alternative forms of county government, the provisions of the Cuyahoga County Charter adopted by the voters of Cuyahoga County in November of 2009, and the issues and opportunities facing the Transition Advisory Group as Cuyahoga County transitions to a charter form of government in January of 2011.

The seminar will begin sharply at 9:30 a.m. and will conclude promptly at 12:30 p.m. Registrations will be accepted only by email. Seminar information is posted on our website at www.ccao.org. Coffee will be served during the morning and lunch will be on your own. Best of all, no registration fee will be charged! To register, contact Janet Erwin, CCAO Administrative Assistant, at jerwin@ccao.org.

COUNTY BULLETIN PROVIDES COMPARATIVE DATA ON MOTOR VEHICLE GAS, STATE AND PERMISSIVE LICENSE TAX REVENUE DISTRIBUTED TO COUNTIES IN 2009

Attached to this edition of CIDS is Bulletin 2010 – 07 which provides comparative data on the amount of motor vehicle gas tax revenue, state license tax revenue and permissive license tax revenue distributed to counties in 2009. The bulletin also provides motor vehicle gas tax receipts as a percentage of total distributions to counties from state and permissive license tax and gas tax distributions. Basic data for motor vehicle fuel (gas) tax distributions was provided by the Department of Taxation. Basic Data for state motor vehicle license and permissive motor vehicle license tax distributions was provided by the Department of Public Safety, Administration Division, Tax Distribution Section. All gas tax and motor vehicle license tax figures have been rounded to the nearest dollar. Due to rounding error, the sum of gas tax, state license tax and permissive license tax revenue may not equal the total distribution amount shown on the table for each county.

Bulletin 2010-07 is posted on our website at www.ccao.org>Publications>County Data Exchange. Any questions regarding the attached bulletin may be directed to Brad Cole, CCAO Managing Director of Research, at (614) 220-7981 or bcole@ccao.org.

LOGAN COUNTY BREAKS GROUND FOR SENIOR RESIDENTIAL FACILITY

On Friday, July 23, the Logan County Commissioners Tony Core, John Bayliss and David Knight broke ground for construction of "The Homestead", a 28,000 square foot senior residential facility offering independent living with assistance. The facility is located in a rural setting near the current Logan Acres skilled nursing facility.

The Homestead is expected to be completed next spring. It will feature 24 spacious living units, 21 of those being 1-bedroom, and 3 of them 2-bedroom. Once open, the facility will employ approximately 15 people. Construction cost is approximately $4.2 million, which is being financed by the issuance of bonds, with the bonds intended to be paid from the fees paid by residents of the facility.

MORPC PLAN WOULD INCREASE LOCAL FOOD PRODUCTION

The Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission (MORPC) reports that the central Ohio economy could get a boost by producing more of the food that is consumed in the area. To achieve this goal, a number of changes will be required. A recently published MORPC study, "The Local Food Assessment & Plan," found that the area needs more food-processing capacity and more agriculture cooperatives. It also should use more methods for extending the growing season.

Having a thriving local food system would give central Ohio a competitive advantage and also would be one way to ensure the region will be less susceptible to disruptions that can occur in other parts of the world. Central Ohio farmers raised $1.1 billion worth of agricultural products in 2007, but only $336 million, about 30 percent, was food. That includes vegetables, fruits, meat, poultry and dairy products, according to the report.

The report provided an assessment of the local food systems in 12 central Ohio counties: Franklin, Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Knox, Licking, Madison, Marion, Morrow, Pickaway, Ross, and Union. It contains 24 recommendations aimed at helping the region produce more of its own food.

MORPC wants to ensure that fresh, safe, healthful, locally produced food is easily accessible to people of all income levels. The commission, which normally tracks transportation issues, is hoping to use its expertise to help the area become more self-reliant in its sources for food by 1) making the distance that food travels to reach the local consumer and 2) preserving farmland by making agriculture more viable for area farmers.

The yearlong study was funded by the Columbus Foundation. To read a copy of the executive summary go to www.morpc.org/pdf/MORPC_LocalFoodBrochure_ExecutiveSummary.pdf.

STATE ACTIVITIES

NEW ODJFS WEBSITE AIDS UNEMPLOYED

Last week, the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) unveiled a new website aimed at helping the unemployed access a range of state services. The Ohio Here To Help (<http://ohioheretohelp.ohio.gov/index.stm>) site "can quickly connect visitors to a wide range of information and resources - from both public and private entities - that can help them search for a job, find education and training opportunities, and learn about the many other services and supports that might be available to them," according to the agency.

The site is divided into the following sections: "I Need Assistance With..." provides helpful links to information about money, food, health care, housing, transportation, child care, veterans' services, education and training, and more; "Job Search" gives visitors access to more than 100,000 job openings in and near Ohio through a direct link to Ohio Means Jobs (<https://ohiomeansjobs.com/omj/>). "Free Download" allows visitors to download and print many of the applications and forms mentioned on the site; and "Stay Connected with Us!" allows visitors to register their names and e-mail addresses to receive notifications about upcoming events and other resources available in their area.

OHIOANS COULD BENEFIT FROM UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION EXTENSION

Idled workers in the state started to benefit this week from a congressional reprieve on unemployment compensation and as many as 155,000 are expected to receive payments under the latest extension through Nov. 27, according to the Ohio Department of Job & Family Services (ODJFS). ODJFS said it paid out $46.8 million in extended benefits last Monday, with that total including retroactive lump sum payments to recipients who had become ineligible as of May 29 while the extension was being debated in Congress. President Barack Obama signed that bill on July 22.

As a result of the extensions, this week's payments nearly tripled the $16.9 million in benefits distributed the prior Monday. ODJFS said it had advised claimants whose benefits had expired to continue filing in anticipation of the legislation eventually passing.

Under the latest congressional action, unemployed Ohioans can receive benefits for up to 99 weeks, which includes 26 weeks of regular state payments, 53 weeks of federal extended benefits and 20 weeks of extended federally funded state benefits.

ODJFS noted the bill only pushed back deadlines for both the federal and state extended unemployment programs and did not add to the total number of weeks for the payments. More information is available at <http://unemployment.ohio.gov>.

USDA APPROVES $1 MILLION TO HELP CLEAN UP GRAND LAKE ST. MARY'S

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) approved $1 million in funding this week toward the state's efforts to clean up the algae-infested Grand Lake St. Marys. The funding will enable farmers in the Grand Lake St. Marys Watershed to apply conservation measures that will benefit water quality in the lake. In the past two years, $2.5 million has been allocated through EQIP for producers in the watershed to implement conservation measures that reduce soil erosion and the amount of nutrients potentially entering waterways.

Grand Lake St. Marys is Ohio's largest inland lake at 13,500 acres. Straddling the Auglaize-Mercer County line between St. Marys and Celina, the lake was constructed in the mid-1800s to store water for the Miami-Erie Canal. In 1949, Grand Lake St. Marys was among the first state parks established in Ohio. (The official geographic name of the lake is Grand Lake. The United States Geological Survey Board of Geographic Names disapproved a proposal to change the name Grand Lake to Grand Lake-Saint Marys, which is the name given on state maps and documents.) It is a popular recreation lake and a drinking water supply for the city of Celina. Today, the lake is so toxic that swimmers and boaters are being warned to stay away and not even touch the lake's algae-filled water.

Over the years, the lake has become increasingly enriched by phosphates and nitrates from a number of man-made and natural sources. These nutrients have contributed to the decline of the lake's water quality.

Ohio EPA participated in a national study of water quality conditions in lakes across the United States in 2007 by collecting one day of sampling data in Grand Lake St. Marys and 19 other Ohio lakes. Laboratory analysis included testing for the presence of algal toxins. Ohio EPA received lab results for microcystins levels in 2009. The level of toxins recorded in Grand Lake St. Marys was very high compared to the other lakes sampled. Sampling continued on a regular basis in 2009 and 2010. Results show an ongoing problem with blue-green algae and the toxins it produces. The three toxins produced include:

- Cylindrospermopsin – attacks the liver and kidneys
- Saxitoxin – attacks the brain and nervous system and can cause respiratory failure
- Microcystin – a liver and nerve toxin

Ohio EPA and various state and local partners have been working within the lake's watershed for many years to achieve improvements along streams that feed the lake which in turn, will improve water quality in the lake.

SEMINARS/WEBINARS

MAKING RURAL ROADS SAFE, UNDERSTANDING RETROREFLECTIVITY IN SIGNS & ROAD MARKINGS WEBINAR

Continuing NACo's Rural Road Safety Webinar Series, a webinar on "Making Rural Roads Safe, Understanding Retroreflectivity in Signs & Road Markings" will be hosted on September 30, 2010 at 2:00 p.m. The webinar will review the current sign retroreflectivity standards (including resources) and also focus on the new standards related to Pavement Marking Retroreflectivity. Additionally, it would provide some best practices to consider when implementing the standards. NACo member counties can attend webinars without leaving their offices! Webinars bring both audio and visual presentations through phone and internet connections. To register go to <https://www2.gotomeeting.com/register/694319506>. For more information, contact James Davenport, NACo Program Manager – Community Services, at (202) 661-8807 or jdavenport@naco.org.

OHIO FARMLAND PRESERVATION SUMMIT

“Setting the Agenda: The Next Decade of Farmland Preservation in Ohio” will be the theme of the 11th Annual Ohio Farmland Preservation Summit to be held November 18, 2010 at the Nationwide and Ohio Farm Bureau 4-H Center, located at 2201 Fred Taylor Drive, on The Ohio State University Campus in Columbus.

This year's Summit will culminate with setting a new agenda for farmland preservation in Ohio. Panel sessions are designed to prepare the group to set new farmland preservation priorities for the next decade. Breakout sessions will include planning and zoning for agri-business development and farmland protection, monitoring and enforcing easements, nutrient trading, business and estate planning and many others. CCAO is on the planning committee for the summit.

For more information go to <http://cffpi.osu.edu/summit10.htm>. For any information not available on the website contact Jody Fife at (614) 728-6210 or farmlandpres@agri.ohio.gov.

DISTRIBUTIONS OF THE MOTOR VEHICLE FUEL TAX (GASOLINE TAX)

The gasoline tax is currently twenty-eight cents per gallon, an amount derived from five different levies. The Ohio Department of Taxation makes distributions monthly to every county and municipality from the Gasoline Excise Tax Fund and State and Local Government Highway Fund. Townships also receive money from both of these funds. Payments are made from the Ohio Department of Taxation to the county auditor; the county pays the townships directly.

Prior to deposit into the Gasoline Excise Tax Fund and State and Local Government Highway Fund, certain percentages of revenue are deposited into the Waterway Safety Fund, Motor Fuel Tax Administration Fund, Wildlife Boater and Angler Fund, and Grade Crossing Fund. Of the remaining revenue, the equivalent of one cent per gallon is allocated to the Local Transportation Improvement Program (LTIP) and distributed on a competitive basis to local governments by the Ohio Public Works Commission (OPWC). Once these distributions have been made, the balance is generally distributed as follows:

- 70.2 percent to the state
- 12.7 percent to municipal corporations based upon the percent of motor vehicle registrations within that municipality as a percentage of statewide registrations as certified by the Department of Public Safety
- 11.1 percent to counties in equal amounts
- 6 percent to townships generally in equal amounts. A limited number of townships receive a portion of the Gasoline Excise Tax Fund based on the greater of their 1/1308th share or a proportionate share based on township lane miles as certified by the Ohio Department of Transportation, or township's motor vehicle registrations as certified by the Ohio Department of Public Safety. The amount of revenue necessary to fund this additional distribution is transferred equally from the Department of Transportation, counties and municipalities.

STATE MOTOR VEHICLE LICENSE TAX DISTRIBUTIONS

For a detailed explanation of state motor vehicle license tax distributions, please refer to County Data Exchange Bulletin 2010 – 06. This bulletin also details the amount of state motor vehicle license tax revenue distributed to counties, and municipal corporations and townships within each county in 2009.

COUNTY, MUNICIPAL AND TOWNSHIP PERMISSIVE MOTOR VEHICLE LICENSE TAX DISTRIBUTIONS

For a detailed explanation of county, municipal and township permissive motor vehicle license tax distributions, please refer to County Data Exchange Bulletin 2010 – 05. This bulletin also details the aggregate amount of county, municipal and township tax receipts distributed to these jurisdictions within each county in 2009.

Note: For simplicity of presentation, gas tax, state license tax, and permissive motor vehicle license tax revenues for each county have been rounded to the nearest dollar. Due to rounding error, revenue distributions for each category of revenue may not equal the total distribution amount shown on the table.
