KASICH ADMINISTRATION ROLLING OUT JOBSOHIO

Governor John Kasich's administration is holding meetings with local officials, business and community leaders and citizens across Ohio to discuss details of JobsOhio, the state's innovative approach to job retention and creation, and the newly defined role of the Ohio Department of Development.

The first of six regional meetings was held Aug. 16 in Dayton. Mark Kvamme, Interim Chief Investment Officer and President of JobsOhio, talked about the need to speed up the process of providing necessary assistance to companies looking to stay or expand in Ohio or move into the state. He also emphasized the importance of state, regional and local officials working together toward a common goal.

"It is going to be essential that we at JobsOhio work closely with our regional and local economic development partners to grow our existing businesses and attract new business," he said.

JobsOhio will oversee many of the development efforts once led by the Ohio Department of Development, including working with city and county development agencies to help draw employers to the state and retain businesses and top talent in Ohio. The meeting was hosted by the Dayton Development Coalition, which is one of six regional economic development agencies that will lead job-creation efforts at the local level as part of the JobsOhio Network – a partnership between the tech-friendly Ohio Third Frontier and JobsOhio. The lead organizations in the Network are: Cincinnati USA Partnership; Columbus 2020!; Appalachian Business Council; Team NEO; and Toledo Regional Growth Partnership. All local officials are welcome to attend the events and interested parties should contact their regional agency. More information can be found at www.Jobs-Ohio.com

Once JobsOhio is fully funded it will take over many of those job-creation responsibilities from the Ohio Department of Development. Development will continue to process state-directed incentives, such as job-creation and retention tax credits and community redevelopment programs to help gain and retain jobs. Development Director Christiane Schmenk, said, "We'll be looking for the first set of results about a year from now, and I think we'll see increased jobs and the metrics move forward quickly."

Schmenk, Kvamme, and Jeff Hoagland, president and CEO of the Dayton Development Coalition, said the reorganization will result in better coordination and teamwork from local government up to the state level. "We have strong ties with the counties in our region," Hoagland said, "and this will only make those ties stronger. One of the things that JobsOhio will measure is how we involve all of the governments and agencies in our region."

The upcoming regional meetings are: Southwest Ohio, Thursday, August 25, 9:30 – 11:00 a.m., The Westin Hotel, 21 East Fifth Street, Cincinnati; Northeast Ohio, Tuesday, August 30, 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. (part of a larger program from Team NEO) Embassy Suites, 5800 Rockside Woods Blvd., Independence; Northwest Ohio, Wednesday, August 31, 9:00 – 11:00 a.m., Hilton Garden Inn, 6165 Levis Commons Blvd., Perrysburg; Central Ohio, Wednesday, September 7, 8:30 – 9:45 a.m. (part of a larger program from Columbus2020!), The Ohio State University, Student Union, 1739 North High Street, Columbus; and Appalachia Ohio, Thursday, September 8, Kenworth Auditorium, 446 Hospital Road, Chillicothe, time to be determined.

THE WILDS RECEIVES 5-STAR RESTORATION GRANT

The National Association of Counties will award more than $133,442 as part of the 2011 Five Star Restoration Program grants to six high-quality, community-based projects to support habitat and wetlands restoration in counties across the nation. Five Star funds act as seed money by leveraging additional funds and services. Projects involve cooperation between local government officials and agencies, community groups, businesses, schools and environmental organizations.

Guernsey County will receive $20,000 for The Wilds, a wildlife conservation center affiliated with the award-winning Columbus Zoo and Aquarium, to restore a currently low-quality wetland and riverbank zone located in the Lower Muskingum Watershed. The Wilds are located in Muskingum County. Project partners will install and maintain pools and riverbuffers. The second season of the project will be devoted to intensive invasive species management and monitoring to ensure native species establishment. The Wilds will implement photo documentation for public outreach and education.

The Wilds is a private, non-profit conservation center located on nearly 10,000 acres of reclaimed mine land in Muskingum County. It was created as the conservation center of the future by a group of civic leaders, political leaders and zoo professionals who believed that a serious scientific approach was required to find solutions to environmental concerns. From its inception, The Wilds has been envisioned as a facility that combines cutting-edge conservation science and education programs with unique visitor opportunities. ### NEW ONLINE GAME – “COUNTIES WORK”

NACo, together with iCivics, has created an online game, "Counties Work," to educate students in grades 6 through 12, about the important role and functions of county government by letting them run their own county. A curriculum and web quest has also been developed to assist teachers with preparing lessons on county government. Click here to view the game: <http://www.icivics.org/> iCivics (formerly Our Courts) is a web-based education project designed to teach students civics and inspire them to be active participants in our democracy. iCivics is the vision of Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, who is concerned that students are not getting the information and tools they need for civic participation, and that civics teachers need better materials and support.

This online game is part of NACo Immediate Past President Glen Whitley's public awareness campaign of "County Government Works" which has many free tools that can help tell your county's message to your constituents. For more information go to www.naco.org and click on the information on the front page.
