2nd Wednesday Webinar

November 14, 2018

Insight into the 2018 Election Results and Recent Trend

CCAO is pleased to offer a one-hour webinar on November 14 at 9:30 a.m. on the “Insight into the Statewide Election Results.”

This webinar will provide insights on

- All statewide election results, Ohio Senate, Ohio House and county election results and comparing them to Ohio’s recent past, and
- Insights on statewide and county election results and comparing them to Ohio’s recent past.

Speaker: Mike Dawson is the creator of the website ohioelectionresults.com. The website contains comprehensive information about Ohio election results dating back to 1856. He is widely considered to be an Ohio election statistics expert. Dawson has a public policy and public relations consulting business. He served as press secretary and communications director for Governor/Senator George Voinovich and Senator Mike DeWine. Dawson is a consultant for the CCAO and others.

Webinar participants may pose questions throughout the presentation. Click here to register for this exceptional educational opportunity.

If you experience difficulty in connecting to the link above and you wish to register for the webinar, please email Tanya McComas, CCAO program assistant, and provide her with your email address. For additional information regarding the topic for this webinar, please contact Cheryl Subler, CCAO managing director of policy.