SUSTAINING MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The County Commissioners Association of Ohio (CCAO) offers a unique membership opportunity for individuals, firms, associates, or corporations that have an interest in county government. The CCAO Sustaining Membership Program recognizes the critical need for new public-private partnerships in making county government more cost effective and efficient.

CCAO offers a variety of publications, information, conferences and seminars that are often useful to firms and corporations. A sustaining member of CCAO receives valuable information concerning the activities of Ohio county government.

Consider the advantages of becoming a sustaining member of CCAO. If you are interested in becoming better informed about county government and showing your support, complete the attached application and send it to CCAO.

Benefits of Membership

Membership is $400 a year. Become a CCAO Sustaining Member at any time during the year, but the program runs on the calendar year. The following basic benefits are included with membership:

- Publications: Receive Counties Current and Statehouse Report newsletters, County Advisory Bulletins (CAB), County Data Exchange (CDE), Legislative Platform & Priorities
- Conferences: Receive Annual Winter Conference & Trade Show registration and sponsorship information.
- CCAO Membership Roster: Published annually. Advertising opportunities available.
- CCAO Website: Your company is listed and linked on CCAO's website, www.ccao.org, for the entire year.
